

INTERNSHIPS PROGRAM

The Internship Program is a new program designed to expose students to the reality of the Italian workplaces, according to their major and interest.

Right now Gonzaga in Florence can offer internships in the following areas with these host organizations:

Education:

Elementary Schools

- Scuola Elementare "Kindergarten" www.kindergarten.it (4 available)
- Scuola Elementare "Scolopi" www.scuolepiefiorentine.it (5 available)
- Scuola Elementare "San Giuseppe" www.csa.fi.it (4 available)
- Scuola Elementare "Boccaccio" www.iclecure.it (1 available)
- Scuola Elementare" Mazzarello" www.istitutomadremazzarellofirenze.it (3 available)

High Schools

- Liceo Classico Europeo e Liceo Linguistico" Poggio Imperiale" www.poggio-imperiale.it
- Liceo Scientifico "Scolopi" www.scuolepiefiorentine.it (4 available)
- "International School of Florence" www.isfitaly.org (2 available)

In some of these Schools the available is limited depending from the semester you apply.

The school intern works with a class of 20/25 students assisting the teacher with classroom activities in English for 1 or 2 hours per week. Generally the intern follows the program of the teacher but the candidates will focus on: observing and interacting with teachers and students in the classroom setting, observing and analysing teaching, becoming aware of diversity, confronting educational issues. Some of these schools are not near Gonzaga in Florence's campus, and to get there requires a 15-minutes bus ride.

Language requisites: None.

Art History :

- Ars et Fides (8 available)

Ars et Fides is a volunteer organization which offers free guided tours of some of the most important Florentine churches. The aim is to provide tourists with a deeper understanding of the religious and conceptual background of the church's history in addition to its artistic and architectural importance. The intern may give tours of Santa Maria del Fiore (Duomo), Santa Croce, Santa Maria Novella or San Lorenzo. He/she must be available to work on a regular basis from 10:30-12:00 a.m. or 3:00-5:00 p.m. once a week. All information necessary to conduct the tours in English is provided by the organization.

Language requisites: None.

Website: www.arsetfides.com

Communications, Journalism

- The Florence Newspaper (4 available)

This journal is a bi-weekly English language newspaper published in Florence. It reports on local and national Italian news and publishes an extensive list of events in and around Florence. The intern writes articles of general interest. Language requisites: None. Website: www.florenceisyou.com

Marketing and Public Relation

- In Tavola Cooking School (1 available)
- Florence Newspaper (1 available)
- The Gold Corner (1 a available)
- Italianloves (1 available)

In Tavola is a famous cooking school in Florence. Website: www.intavola.org

Florence Newspaper is an English language newspaper. Website: www.florenceisyou.com

The Gold Corner is a famous Florentine jewellery. Website: www.thegoldcorner.it

Italianloves is a shop for Oil, wine and Italian specialties. Website: www.italiansloves.com

The marketing internship consists of developing strategies for consolidating and expanding the firm's English-speaking clientele in and around Florence. The intern must be outgoing, independent and self-motivated.

Language requisites: None.

All these internships are unpaid and not for credit.